FEBRUARY MEETING (Various speakers talked about genealogical helpers.)

THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS (ALTHEA DOUGLAS)
-----

Even "ordinary" ancestors may appear in these early records (approx. 1785-1850). Most able-bodied landowners shared community chores such as serving on Grand and Petit Juries, or as overseers of the poor, fence viewers, surveyors of lumber, etc. References to civil disputes, poaching, Sabbath-breaking, licensing of taverns, etc. appear. Although unindexed, these records are reasonably accessible, as early communities were small. Check old newspapers for lists of appointments; see if your ancestor is mentioned; then try for the session records themselves. Some are in the Public Archives of Canada, many are in the Archives of Ontario; or try local museums, etc. (See: The Courts of Quarter Sessions, by Althea Douglas, Canadian Genealogist, Vol. 5, #4, 1983).

SHIPPING REGISTERS (ALTHEA DOUGLAS)

These provide information on owners of ships over 25 tons. Ships were owned in 64 shares, and might have one owner or up to 64 owners. Usually the master owned some shares. If your ancestors were involved in shipping or lived near major ports, these are worth checking. When shares were mortgaged, this was recorded. When owners died, heirs were recorded. Local newspapers gave information on ships' comings and goings. Write the National Archives of Canada for a list of microfilm numbers for these records.

SCARBOROUGH HISTORICAL NOTES AND COMMENTS INDEX (BRUCE MCCOWAN)

The emigration of Scots from Dumfriesshire and Lanarkshire to Scarborough (1790-1850), migrations from Scarborough to Western Canada (1870's-1880's) and much more can be searched using this index of 2,500 persons. Details on ordering are in the January "Tree".

BARNARDO CHILDREN

June Tedesco's grandmother would tell nothing about her early life, but June got a wealth of information, including a photograph of her grandmother as a child and details of her moves around Ontario, by writing to U.K. founding homes (addresses in February 1986 "Newsleaf"). Wanda Sinclair had similar results.

PASSENGER SHIPS (Looking for information on ships that brought your ----- ancestors to Canada?)

Frank Hankins checked the shipping sections of the Montreal Gazette (Robarts Library) for records of sailing dates, then wrote marine museums for pictures of the "Peruvian" (1870's), the "Pretorian" (early 1900's) and is still tracking the "Manitobian" (1873). Try these sources:

Did your Granny use a Pin?

□ BY J. R. GODDARD

HOW did our ancestors choose names for their, often numerous, progeny? The eldest children got the names of their parents, grandparents and favoured aunts and uncles – thereby causing confusion for future genealogists. But what happened when these names were all used up? We get inspiration from books, newspapers, films, TV. But our ancestors were often barely literate. The only stories they knew well were from the Bible, which they had read to them every Sunday in church or chapel. The Bible also, on many occasions, was the only book in their home, probably won for good attendance at Sunday school.

Was one of your ancestors named after his parent's favourite Biblical hero or heroine? Or did your granny open the Good Book at random and stick a pin into the page with eyes closed?

Here are a few of the stranger Biblical names that I have seen used and recorded in parish register, together with explanations, derivations and sources:

ACHSAH – A daughter of Caleb whom he promised as wife to the man who could capture Kiriathsepher. Othniel, her cousin, won the battle and Achsah. Being a sensible, far-seeing girl she prompted him to ask for a piece of fertile, well-watered land for her marriage portion. Joshua 15, 16-19.

ASENATH – The daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On in Egypt, who the Pharaoh gave to Joseph, his favourite, as a wife. Mother of Manasseh and Ephraim. Genesis 41, 45.

BATHSHEBA – "daughter of oath". The lovely wife of Uriah the Hittite. After admiring her from a distance as she bathed, King David arranged for the death of Uriah in battle so that he could marry her. Mother of the great and wise King Solomon. 2 Samuel 11.

CALEB – "bold one". One of the twelve men sent on ahead of Moses when the tribes were looking for fertile land on which to settle. Numbers 13, 6.

DEBORAH – "a bee". A prophetess who helped free the Israelites from the Canaanites. Judges 4 and 5. Or the faithful nurse of Rebecca, the wife of Isaac. Genesis 14, 59.

DORCAS – Greek for "a gazelle". While TABITHA means the same in Aramaic. She was a disciple of the Lord living in Joppa and described as "being full of good works and acts of charity". She died and was revived by St Peter. Act 9, 36.

ESTHER – ALSO CALLED Hadassah, both meaning "myrtle". A fair and beautiful orphan Jewess who was brought up by her uncle Mordecai. Despite her race Ahasuerus (or Xerxes) king of Persia chose her for his wife, after deposing Queen VASHTI for excessive modesty. Esther bravely spoke up for the Jews when they were threatened with massacre. Book of Esther.

HAGAR – When SARAH had tried to have a child by Abraham, her husband, for many years without success, she gave Hagar, her Egyptian hand maid to him as a mistress. Hagar bore Abraham a son, Ishmael, and caused a rift between her and Sarah. Genesis 16.

HAM – One of the three sons of Noah (the others being SHEM and JAPHETH). He survived the flood in the Ark, but earned Noah's displeasure because when he found Noah drunk he thought it a great joke. Genesis 5, 32 etc.

HEPHZIBAH – "my delight is in her". The wife of HEKEKIAH and mother of MAN-ASEH. Her name was changed from AZUBAH which means "forsaken". Isaiah 62, 4.

ISAACHAR – The ninth son of Jacob and the fifth of Leah. The head of a numerous tribe. Numbers 1, 29.

JARED – "to rise or ascend". The son of MAHALALEEL, a descendant of Seth, the son of Adam. Genesis 5, 15-20.

JEMIMA – The eldest of the three beautiful daughters of Job. Her name means "dove" and could have expressed her temperament. KEZIA, meaning Cassia tree, and KEREN-HAPPUCH, meaning eye-lash paint, mascara or kohl (perhaps she had beautiful eyes) were the others. Job 42.

JEPHTHAN – "whom God sets free". Illegitimate son of Gilead who was exiled by his half-brothers and became a guerilla leader. A rash promise caused him to sacrifice his only daughter. Judges 11.

KETURAH – Wife of Abraham and the mother of six of his sons. Genesis 25, 1-4.

MEPHIBOSHETH – The son of Jonathan, the son of Saul. He was lame from a childhood accident. 2 Samuel 19, 24.

NEPHTHALIM – The fifth son of Jacob. His tribe possessed fertile land in the north and were constantly under threat. Isaiah 9, 1-2 contains a prophecy that the Messiah would preach in the lands of Nephthalim and it was fulfilled Matthew 4, 13-25.

NIMROD – "a mighty hunter". The son of Cush, son of Ham. Genesis 10, 8-11.

PENNINAH – One of the wives of ELKANAH. Penninah had children but HANNAH had none and was distressed at her infertility. She went to the temple and prayed and her wish was granted by the birth of a son whom she named SAMUEL "asked of God". When Samuel was weaned he was given to the temple priest as a servant and eventually became a prophet himself. Book of Samuel.

SHADRACH – one of the several handsome, intelligent Israelite youths at the court of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Shadrach, MESHAK, ABEDNEGO and DANIEL refused to bow to a golden image of the king and were exposed to many dangers until Nebuchadnezzar was dethroned. Book of Daniel.

TAMAR – "a date palm". Several ladies in the Bible had this name. One was the beautiful daughter of King David, a sister to ABSALOM. She was raped by her half brother Amnon and revenged by Absalom. 2 Samuel 13.
